EVERY Democrat should read the admirable speech of Gov. Hendricks, published in another column, which he delivered in Chicago yesterday, and in which Ohio was carried by the Republicans on Tuesday of last week. The Governor is doing superb work, the best work of his life, and is arousing the enthusiaem of the people wherever he goes.

MULLIGAN is not yet done with Mr. Bigine. He has several letters more to publish when a convenient time arrives. among them one from the Plumed Knight asking him to assume his share of the whisky-ring investments and relieve him of all responsibility so that he could stand a threatened investigation by Congress. Jim was up to his eyes in all the cor raptions of his time in the House.

SENATOR THURMAN, in the course of an interview with a New York reporter on Tuesday, said he was hopeful of the Democrats carrying Ohio and Indians, which he said would be won by one of the closest country, Hendricks, Voorhees and Mc-Donald working as they never did before during their political lives. As to New York "Old Bandana" has fears that the trading and dickering of politicians who care more for offices than principles, may result in the loss of that State. But whether or not, victory is certain for Cleveland.
